Code of Conduct for Parents and Guardians

We are fully committed to promoting and protecting the well being of all our registered athletes. Glovertown Gymnastics believes that all registered athletes, coaches, volunteers and parents should at all times show respect and understanding for the safety and well being of others. Therefore, members are encouraged and asked to be open and share any complaints or concerns they may have about any aspect of the sport and club with a head coach or club representative.

Parents and guardians are an integral part of the safe and smooth running of Glovertown Gymnastics. As a parent/guardian of a registered athlete, we ask that you:

- Encourage your child to know the rules and participate within them.
- Never force your child to take part in sport nor belittle them for mistakes or poor performance.
- Where your child is representing at events or competitions; accept judgements, set a good example by applauding the good performance of all and encourage good sportsmanship.
- Help your child recognize good performance; not just results.
- Always ensure your child is dressed appropriately for the sport and has plenty of fluids to drink along with healthy snack choices for during training and competition.
- Keep the head coach of their session informed of any injuries or illness that affect their safe participation.
- Fees for training and events must be paid promptly.
- Share any concerns or complaints with the clubs head coach of that session or with a club official promptly.
- Behave respectfully towards coaches, gymnasts and other parents.
- In the event of bullying, parents will be contacted with a three strike rule initiated. 1; Verbal Warning. 2; Written Warning. 3; Athlete will be unable to participate in any event representing the club for the remainder of the season.
- Support your child's involvement and help them to enjoy the sport.
